

Privacy policy

Autium Limited takes your privacy very seriously. We ask that you read this privacy policy carefully as it contains important information about what to expect when we collect personal information about you and how we will use your personal data.

This policy applies to information we collect about visitors to our website and people who do business with us.

1. The information we collect about you

When you do business with us or register for our service we may collect information from you when you:

- visit our website;
- use our App; or
- make contact with us in person, by email, letter or on the telephone

2. How we will use the information about you

- 2.1. We gather this information to allow us to process your registration, process any orders you may make and provide the services requested.
- 2.2. We may also use aggregate information and statistics for the purposes of monitoring website usage in order to help us to develop our website and our services. These statistics will not include information that can be used to identify you.

3. Marketing

If you have consented, we may also wish to provide you with information about special features of our website or any other service or products we think may be of interest to you. You may withdraw your consent by email.

4. Our use of cookies and other information-gathering technologies

- 4.1. Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard Internet log information and visitor behaviour information. The information is used to track visitor use of the website and to compile statistical reports on website activity.
- 4.2. For further information about cookies visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org. You can set your browser not to accept cookies and the above websites tell you how to remove cookies from your browser.

5. How we protect your information

5.1. Your personal information is stored on a secure server. Details relating to any transactions via our Website will be encrypted to ensure its safety.

5.2. We will use all reasonable efforts to safeguard your personal information. However, you should be aware that the use of the Internet is not entirely secure and for this reason we cannot guarantee the security or integrity of any personal information which is transferred from you or to you via the Internet.

6. Access to your information and updating and correcting your information

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your personal information, please send an email to us.

If any of the information that you have provided to us changes, for example if you change your email address, name or payment details, or if you wish to cancel your registration, please let us know the correct details by sending an email to us. You may ask us, or we may ask you, to correct information you or we think is inaccurate, and you may also ask us to remove information which is inaccurate.

7. Sale of business

If our business is sold or integrated with another business your details may be disclosed to our advisers and any prospective purchasers and their advisers and will be passed on to the new owners of the business.

8. Your consent

By submitting your personal information you consent to the use of that information as set out in this policy.

9. Changes to privacy policy

We keep our privacy policy under regular review. If we change our privacy policy we will post the changes on this page, and place notices on other pages of the website, so that you may be aware of the information we collect and how we use it at all times.
